

SHORT COURSE SERIES

Clockwise

pre-intermediate

Classbook

Bruce McGowen &
Vic Richardson

OXFORD

Contents

01 BEING ME p.04

Grammar

Question forms.
Short answers
(Yes, I do, No, I haven't).

Speak out

Asking questions and finding out personal information.

02 SOCIAL LIFE p.07

Vocabulary

Free time activities.

English in use

Making arrangements, invitations, and suggestions.
Accepting and refusing.
Pronunciation – weak forms.

Speak out

Making dates and social arrangements.

03 MEET THE FAMILY p.10

Vocabulary

Family members.
Describing people – appearance and personality.
Very, really, quite, fairly.
Get on with, look like, take after.
Compound adjectives
(blue-eyed, narrow-minded).

Speak out

Describing families and family trees.

04 NEAREST AND DEAREST p.12

Vocabulary

Relationship verbs
(fall in love, get married).

Listening

People describing different relationships.

Speak out

Describing relationships.

05 BEING A TRAVELLER p.14

Grammar

Past simple and continuous.
The twenty most common verbs in spoken English.
Pronunciation – -ed endings, /ɪd/, /d/, /t/.

Speak out

Completing a holiday dialogue and talking about holidays.

06 ON THE ROAD p.17

Vocabulary

Forms of transport, and associated places, people, and verbs.

English in use

Travel situations – asking for travel information, booking a hotel room.
Pronunciation – question intonation.

Speak out

Travel situation dialogues.

07 ENJOY YOUR TRIP p.20

Vocabulary

Things people take on holiday.
Compound nouns
(penknife, money belt).
Pronunciation – word stress in compound nouns.
Multi-word verbs associated with travel (set off, get back).

Speak out

Choosing a holiday and deciding what to take.

08 TRAVELLER'S TALES p.22

Listening

Travel advice about Florida.
A story of a holiday robbery.

Speak out

Describing holiday problems.

09 BEING IN TOUCH p.24

Grammar

Present perfect and past simple.
Pronunciation – weak forms of have, has, and been.
Been and gone.

Speak out

Catching up on news.

10 IT'S FOR YOU p.27

Vocabulary

Telephone words (dial a number, leave a message).

English in use

Formal and informal phone language.
Pronunciation – question intonation.

Speak out

Formal and informal phone conversations.

11 TALK TO ME p.30

Vocabulary

Technology and communication.
Similar words (look / see / watch).

Speak out

Are you 'techno-friendly'?

12 OUT OF TOUCH p.32

Listening

Discussing opinions about what men and women say.
Phrases for agreeing and disagreeing (So do I, definitely not).
A radio programme about men's and women's speech.

Speak out

Are you a typical woman or man?

13 BEING A CONSUMER p.34

Vocabulary

Money words and verbs
(credit card, coins, afford).

Grammar

First conditional.
Present simple after when, before, after, as soon as.
Will be able to.

Speak out

Discussing good and bad ideas for saving money.

14 READY TO ORDER p.37

Vocabulary

Restaurant and fast food words
(wine glass, candles, tray, straw).

English in use

Useful language for eating out, or at someone's house.

Grammar

Short questions (Black or white? Milk and sugar?).

Speak out

Talking about students' favourite restaurants.

15 FOOD TO GO p.40

Vocabulary

Food vocabulary.
Supermarket vocabulary
(toiletries, frozen food).
Containers (a packet of crisps).
Pronunciation – weak forms of a and of.
Countable and uncountable nouns.

Speak out

Planning a perfect meal.

16 SHOP TILL YOU DROP p.42

Listening

Opening hours in different countries.
Changing opening hours and shopping times in Britain.
Expressing likes and dislikes.

Speak out

Are you a shopaholic?

17 BEING A FOREIGNER p.44

Vocabulary

Describing countries and cities.
Pronunciation – word stress.

Grammar

Comparatives and superlatives.
Not as ... as, much, a bit.
Pronunciation – weak forms of than and as.

Speak out

Comparing students' countries with the UK.

18 WHEN IN ROME p.47

English in use

Comparing customs and behaviour in Indonesia and Britain.

Polite language (Would you like ...? Could I have ...?).

Pronunciation – sounding polite.

Speak out

Talking about politeness and customs in students' countries.

19 LET'S CELEBRATE p.50

Vocabulary

Saying the date.

Celebrations and associated words and phrases (Christmas, fireworks, Happy New Year!).

Pronunciation – word stress.

Words that go together (cut a cake, blow out candles).

Speak out

Describing celebrations.

20 LIVING ABROAD p.52

Listening

People's impressions of living abroad.
Advice on moving to Sri Lanka.

Speak out

Talking about other countries.

21 BEING FASHIONABLE p.54

Grammar

Obligation – have to, don't have to, mustn't.

Pronunciation – have and have to.

Speak out

Predicting the content of magazine articles.

22 JUST LOOKING p.57

Vocabulary

Names of shops (newsagent, jeweller's).

English in use

Shopping language.

Speak out

Buying clothes.

23 NOTHING TO WEAR p.60

Vocabulary

Clothes and accessories.

Go with, suit, fit, look.

Words that go together (gold earrings, leather watch strap).

Speak out

Discussing what to wear in different situations.

24 MY GENERATION p.62

Listening

Talking about events in the twentieth century.

Vague language (I'm not sure, could be).

Speak out

Discussing what people will remember of today's clothes, music, films.

25 BEING A WORKER p.64

Grammar

Present simple and continuous.

Adverbs of frequency.

Pronunciation – third person -s, /s/, /z/, /ɪz/.

Speak out

Interviewing someone about their lifestyle.

26 ALL WORK AND NO PLAY p.67

Vocabulary

Work and study words (colleague, revise).

English in use

Giving advice

(should, why don't you).

Pronunciation – sentence stress, question intonation.

Speak out

Giving people advice.

27 9 TO 5 p.70

Vocabulary

Jobs and work.

Nouns and adjectives (reliability / reliable, ambition / ambitious).

Speak out

Describing and ranking jobs.

28 JUST THE JOB p.72

Listening

Advice for interviewers.

Listening to two contrasting job interviews.

Pronunciation – question intonation.

Speak out

A job interview.

29 HUMAN BEING p.74

Vocabulary

Age groups and associated words (babies, teenagers, babysit, computer games).

Multi-word verbs (grow up, settle down).

Grammar

Talking about the future (want to, would like to, hope to, plan to, look forward to, going to).

Pronunciation – weak forms of to, going to, and want to.

Speak out

Talking about your future, and 'life plans'.

30 GET WELL SOON p.77

Vocabulary

Medical problems.

English in use

Talking about illness / problems.

Pronunciation – sentence stress.

Speak out

Preparing health advice for tropical travel.

31 MIND AND BODY p.80

Vocabulary

Parts of the body and emotions.

Nouns and adjectives (anger / angry, happiness / happy).

Pronunciation – word stress.

-ed and -ing adjectives (bored / boring, interested / interesting).

Speak out

Discussing similarities between people and animals.

32 UNDER PRESSURE p.82

Listening

What makes you feel stressed?

How to manage stress.

Speak out

Ranking stressful activities, and giving advice to help.

PRACTICE p.84 TAPESCRIPTS p.106