

Eighth Edition

T E C H N I C A L

E n g l i s h

Writing

Nell Ann Pickett

Reading and

Ann A. Laster

Speaking

Katherine E. Staples

BRIEF CONTENTS

Detailed Contents	xiii
Preface	xxvii
Ancillaries	xxxi
Introduction	xxxiii

PART I

Getting Started with Technical Communication	1
1 Technical Communication: What Is It?	3
2 Defining Workplace Readers: Who Are They?	15

PART II

The Technical Communicator's Tools	27
3 The Technical Communicator's Tools: Clear Language	29
4 The Technical Communicator's Tools: Information Design	54
5 The Technical Communicator's Tools: Visuals	81
6 The Technical Communicator's Tools: Technology	113

PART III

The Technical Writing Process	131
7 The Technical Writing Process: Planning and Drafting	133
8 The Technical Writing Process: Reviewing and Revising	150

PART IV

Situations and Strategies for Technical Communication	171
9 Procedure Explanation: Showing How	173

10	Description: Using Details	217
11	Definition: Explaining What Something Is	262
12	Summaries: Getting to the Heart of the Matter	293
13	Reports: Shaping Information	316
14	Proposals: Using Facts to Make a Case	377
15	Correspondence: Sending and Responding to Messages	420

PART V

Oral Communication	469
16 Oral Communication: Saying It Simply	471

REFERENCE SECTIONS

The Technical Communicator's Guide to Research	509
The Research Process	511
Guides to Information Sources	528
Documentation	545
Student Research Report	557
APPENDIX 1 The Search for Employment	586
APPENDIX 2 The Search for Standard English Usage	617

Credits	683
Index	687

DETAILED CONTENTS

Preface	xxvii
Ancillaries	xxxi
Introduction	xxxiii

PART I

Getting Started with Technical Communication 1

CHAPTER 1 Technical Communication: What Is It? 3

Introduction	4
What Is Technical Communication?	4
Technical Communication and Audience	5
Workplace Communication and Academic Writing	6
Communicating on the Job	7
Collaboration	7
Peer Review	8
The Technical Communicator's Responsibilities	8
General Principles for Technical Communication	9
Chapter Summary	10
Activities	10
Individual and Collaborative Activities	10
READING: U.S. Department of Labor, Job Description of a Technical Communicator	11
READING: "A Technical Writer Considers His Latest Love Object," by Chick Wallace	12
CASE STUDY: VCR Blues	13

CHAPTER 2 Defining Workplace Readers: Who Are They? 15

Introduction	16
Readers and Expertise	16
Primary and Secondary Audiences	17
Understanding the Reader's Context	18
Motivating Readers	19

Diversity and the Workplace Audience	20
General Principles for Defining Workplace Readers	21
Chapter Summary	21
Activities	21
Individual and Collaborative Activities	21
READING: Interview from Working , by Studs Terkel	22
CASE STUDY: Usual and Customary	24

PART II

The Technical Communicator's Tools 27

CHAPTER 3 The Technical Communicator's Tools: Clear Language 29

Introduction	30
What Is Style?	30
Workplace Style	30
Specific and General Words	31
Jargon and Gobbledygook	33
Sexist Language	34
Tone, Tact, and Bias	34
Effective Sentence Patterns	36
Strategies for Conciseness	36
Strategies for Simplicity	39
Choices for Clarity	42
General Principles for Clear Language	43
Chapter Summary	43
Activities	44
Individual and Collaborative Activities	44
READING: "Clear Writing Means Clear Thinking Means . . .," by Marvin H. Swift	47

CHAPTER 4 The Technical Communicator's Tools: Information Design 54

Introduction	55
What Is Information Design?	55
How People Read Documents	56
Designing Documents for Your Readers' Needs	56
Helping Readers Understand	56
Helping Readers Learn	57
Helping Readers Navigate	60
Design Strategies for Pages	60
Elements of Page Design	61
Visual Elements	63
Combining Design Elements	67

Design Strategies for Computer Screens	69
Chunking and Legibility	69
Visual Elements on Screens	70
Guidelines for Information Design	72
General Principles for Information Design	72
Chapter Summary Information Design	73
Activities	73
Individual and Collaborative Activities	73
READING: "Checking Your Document's Design Features," by Roger H. Munger	77

CHAPTER 5	The Technical Communicator's Tools: Visuals	81
	Introduction	82
	What Are Visuals?	82
	When to Use Visuals	83
	The Visual Communicator's Responsibilities	84
	Understanding and Respecting Your Audience	84
	Presenting Visual Information Accurately and Honestly	86
	Giving Credit for Borrowed Material	87
	Using Visuals Effectively	88
	Using Software to Create Visuals	89
	Graphics Software	90
	Presentation Software	92
	Computer Assisted or Manually Constructed Visuals	92
	Developing and Using Different Types of Visuals	92
	Photographs	93
	Drawings	94
	Diagrams	95
	Charts	97
	Graphs	102
	Tables	104
	General Principles for Visuals	107
	Chapter Summary Visuals	107
	Activities	108
	Individual and Collaborative Activities	108
	READING: From "Pictures Please—Presenting Information Visually," by William Horton	110

CHAPTER 6	The Technical Communicator's Tools: Technology	113
	Introduction	114
	What Are Communication Technologies?	114
	Technical Tools for Communicators	115
	The Computer as a Communication Tool	115

Tools for Writing	116
Tools for Designing	117
Tools for Creating Visuals	117
Tools for Presentations	118
Tools for Creating Web Pages	119
Technology That Delivers Communication	119
Print on the Page	120
Speaking and Listening: The Telephone	120
Seeing and Hearing: Videoconferences	121
Written Conversations: E-Mail	121
Written Conferences: Listservs	122
Watching and Hearing: Media for Oral Presentations	122
Reading, Hearing, and Seeing: The World Wide Web	123
Guidelines for Selecting Communication Tools and Media	124
General Principles for Communication Technologies	125
Chapter Summary Technology	125
Activities	126
Individual and Collaborative Activities	126
READING: From "The Impact of New Technologies on Technical Communication," by Henrietta N. Shirk	127

PART III

The Technical Writing Process 131

CHAPTER 7	The Technical Writing Process: Planning and Drafting	133
	Introduction	134
	Getting Started	134
	The Project Plan Sheet: Defining the Problem	135
	Organizing the Project	139
	Introduction, Body, and Closing	140
	Beginning: Introducing the Project	140
	Body: Developing the Parts of a Document	142
	Ending: Giving Closure	142
	Methods of Development: Patterns of Organization	143
	Cause and Effect	143
	Narrative (Time Sequence)	143
	Spatial Description	144
	General to Particular Order	144
	Particular to General Order	145
	Classification (Order by Grouping)	145
	Partition (Order by Dividing)	146

Writing the Rough Draft	146
General Principles for Planning and Drafting	147
Chapter Summary Planning and Drafting	147
Activities	148
Individual and Collaborative Activities	148
Project Plan Sheet	149

CHAPTER 8	The Technical Writing Process: Reviewing and Revising	150
	Introduction	151
	What Is Reviewing?	151
	Reviewing for Global Issues	152
	Global Checks: Audience and Subject Matter	152
	Global Checks: Order	154
	Global Checks: Information Design, Visuals, and Language	156
	Summarizing and Responding to a Global Review	157
	Reviewing for Consistency	158
	Consistency Checks: Information Design, Visuals, and Language	158
	Writing Comments and Making Corrections	159
	Acting on a Consistency Review	160
	Strategies for Peer Review	160
	Strategies for Reviewing Your Own Draft	161
	What Is Revision?	161
	Testing for Success	163
	General Principles for Reviewing and Revising	164
	Chapter Summary Reviewing and Revising	165
	Activities	165
	Individual and Collaborative Activities	165

PART IV

Situations and Strategies for Technical Communication 171

CHAPTER 9	Procedure Explanation: Showing How	173
	Introduction	174
	What Is a Procedure Explanation?	174
	Audiences and Uses for Procedure Explanation	175
	The Author's Responsibilities	177
	Graphics and Other Visuals for Procedure Explanations	179
	Information Design	179
	Procedure Explanations of How to Do Something (Instructions)	183

Adapting Instructions to Audience and Purpose	183
Planning and Organizing Instructions	187
Student Example: Instructions	188
General Principles for Instructions	194
Procedure Explanations of How Something Is Done or How It Happens (Process)	194
Adapting Process Explanations to Audience and Purpose	195
Planning and Organizing Process Explanations	196
Student Example: Process Explanation	199
General Principles for Explaining a Process	206
Chapter Summary Procedure	206
Activities	207
Individual and Collaborative Activities	207
READING: From The Shores of the Cosmic Ocean , by Carl Sagan	210
CASE STUDY: Software? Tough Luck!	212
Project Plan Sheet for Instructions	214
Project Plan Sheet for a Process Explanation	216

CHAPTER 10 Description: Using Details 217

Introduction	218
What Is Description?	218
Audiences and Uses for Description	219
Descriptions of Representative Models and Specific Models	219
The Author's Responsibilities	226
Accurate and Appropriate Terminology	226
Graphics and Other Visuals in Description	231
Mechanism Description	231
Describing a Representative Model of a Mechanism	232
Planning and Organizing a Description of a Representative Model	233
Student Example: Description of a Representative Model of a Mechanism	234
Describing a Specific Model of a Mechanism	240
Planning and Organizing a Description of a Specific Model	240
Student Example: Description of a Specific Model of a Mechanism	242
General Principles for Description	249
Chapter Summary Description	249
Activities	250
Individual and Collaborative Activities	250
READING: Excerpt from Blind Descent , by Nevada Barr	254
CASE STUDY: Get the Picture?	259
Project Plan Sheet for a Description	261

Introduction	263
What Is Definition?	263
When to Define a Term	265
Where to Place a Definition	265
Adapting Definition to Audience and Purpose	266
The Author's Responsibilities	270
Incorporating Graphics and Other Visuals in Definition	270
Three Approaches to Definition: Informal, Formal, and Extended Definition	271
Informal Definition	271
Formal Definition	272
Extended Definition	276
General Principles for Definition	284
Chapter Summary Definition	284
Activities	285
Individual and Collaborative Activities	285
READING: Excerpt from About ... Being an Executor , Metropolitan Life Insurance Company	287
CASE STUDY: In Terms of Pollution	289
Project Plan Sheet for an Extended Definition	291

Introduction	294
What Is a Summary?	294
Qualities of a Useful Summary	295
Objective Summaries	295
Evaluative Summaries	295
Types of Summaries	296
Descriptive Summaries	296
Informative Summaries	297
Executive Summaries	299
What Type of Summary Should You Write?	300
Writing and Revising a Summary	303
Student Example: Descriptive Summary	303
General Principles for Summaries	308
Chapter Summary Summaries	308
Activities	309
Individual and Collaborative Activities	309
READING: "How to Write a Useful Abstract," by Janis Ramey	310
CASE STUDY: The Bottom Line	313
Project Plan Sheet for a Summary	315

CHAPTER 13 Reports: Shaping Information

Introduction	317
Multipurpose Reports	317
What Is a Report?	329
Workplace Uses of Reports	329
Qualities of Report Content	329
Accuracy	329
Clarity	330
Conciseness	330
Objectivity	331
The Author's Responsibilities	332
Formats for Reports	332
Special Formats	332
Conventional Report Elements	333
Design Options in Reports	335
Use of Graphics and Other Visuals	336
Types of Reports	336
Observation Report	336
Progress Report	354
Feasibility Report	364
General Principles for Reports	367
Chapter Summary	368
Activities	368
Individual and Collaborative Activities	368
READING: "1998 Drinking Water Quality Report"	370
CASE STUDY: A Resounding Report	373
Project Plan Sheet for Reports	375
Organization Plan Sheet for Reports	376

CHAPTER 14 Proposals: Using Facts to Make a Case

Introduction	378
What Is a Proposal?	378
Proposals in the Workplace	379
Types of Proposals	384
Informal and Formal	384
Internal and External	384
Solicited and Unsolicited	384
Qualities of Effective Proposals	388
Main Parts of a Proposal	389
Planning and Writing a Proposal	390

Presenting the Proposal	392
Student Example: A Proposal	392
General Principles for Proposals	407
Chapter Summary Proposals	407
Activities	408
Individual and Collaborative Activities	408
READING: "Why Your Last Technical Proposal Failed," by Edmund Weiss	409
CASE STUDY: You're Proposing What?	416
Project Plan Sheet for Proposals	419

CHAPTER 15 Correspondence: Sending and Responding to Messages 420

Introduction	421
What Is Correspondence?	421
Reader-Centered Emphasis	422
Audience Considerations	423
The Author's Responsibilities	423
Respect	424
Courtesy	424
Positive Working Relationships	424
Ethical Practices	424
Media for Electronic Correspondence	424
Facsimiles (Faxes), Voice Mail, and E-Mail	425
Choice of Correspondence Medium: Memorandum (Memo) and Letter	429
Memorandums: Conventions, Formats, Styles, and Occasions	430
Letters: Conventions, Formats, Styles, and Occasions	430
Types of Letters	439
Letter of Inquiry	440
Good News and Bad News Letters	440
Claim and Adjustment Letters	443
Transmittal Letters	450
General Principles for Correspondence	453
Chapter Summary Correspondence	453
Activities	454
Individual and Collaborative Activities	454
READING: "Ethics in the Computer Age," by Nell Luter Floyd	457
CASE STUDY: Just the Fax	463
Project Plan Sheet for Correspondence	465
Organization Plan Sheet for Correspondence	467

Oral Communication469*CHAPTER 16 Oral Communication: Saying It Simply*471*Introduction 472*What Is Oral Communication? 472*Speaking and Writing 473*Informal, Quasiformal, and Formal Presentations 473

Informal Presentations 473

Quasiformal Presentations 474

Formal Presentations 474

The Speaker's Responsibilities 474

Room and Equipment Conditions 475

Use of Allotted Time 475

Time Limit 475

Ethical Practices 475

Coping with Nervousness 476Purposes of Oral Presentations 477

To Entertain 477

To Persuade 477

To Inform 480

Preparing an Oral Presentation 481

Determining the Specific Purpose 481

Analyzing the Type of Audience 481

Gathering the Material 481

Organizing the Material 482

Determining the Mode of Delivery 482

Outlining the Speech 482

Preparing Visual Materials 483

Rehearsing 483

Student Example: Oral Presentation 483Delivering an Oral Presentation 489*Example: A Speech by a Company Executive 489*Developing and Scripting Visuals 489

Types of Visuals in Oral Presentations 489

Preparing and Showing Visuals 494

Preparing Visuals 494

Showing Visuals 495

Evaluating Oral Presentations 496General Principles for Oral Communication 498*Chapter Summary Oral Communication 498*Activities 499

Individual and Collaborative Activities 499

READING: "How to Sabotage a Presentation," by Hugh Hay-Roe 500

CASE STUDY: Big Talk 503

Project Plan Sheet for Oral Presentations 506

Evaluation of Oral Presentations 508

REFERENCE SECTIONS

The Technical Communicator's Guide to Research 509

Introduction 510

The Research Process 511

Introduction 512

When Do Communicators Need Research? 512

Defining Research Questions 513

Audience 513

Purpose 513

Scope 513

Prior Knowledge 514

Working with Librarians 514

Beginning the Search: Early Steps 514

Recording and Tracing Your Steps 515

Using the Library Book Catalog 517

Keyword Searching 517

Searching: Additional Resources 519

Periodical Indexes 520

Other Research Materials 520

Interviewing a Source 520

Previewing Sources: Using Abstracts and Skimming 522

Taking Notes 522

Quoting and Paraphrasing 523

Organizing Your Notes 524

Evaluating Sources 525

Concluding Your Research 525

General Principles for the Research Process 526

Chapter Summary The Research Process 527

Guides to Information Sources 528

Introduction 529

Using the Library 529

The Public Access Catalog (PAC) 529

Using the Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC)	530
Library of Congress Subject Headings	531
Periodicals Holdings List	531
Nonprint Collections	531
The Vertical File	532
Guides to Information: Indexes	532
Computerized Periodical Index Systems	532
Indexes to Professional Journals	535
Indexes to Newspapers	536
Indexes to Government Publications	536
Essay Index	537
Online Computer Searching	537
SIRS: An Example of a Library Resource in Many Formats	538
Internet Searching	538
The Invisible Web	540
Reference Works	541
Encyclopedias	541
Dictionaries	541
Statistical References	542
Almanacs	542
Bibliographies	542
Handbooks	543
Yearbooks	543
Guides to Reference Works	543
Guides to Periodicals	543
Guides to CD-ROMs	543
Publicly Available Print Materials	544
Chapter Summary	Guides to Information Sources 544

Documentation	545
Introduction	546
What and Why Must You Document?	546
Types of Documentation Systems	547
Notational Documentation	547
Reference Documentation	547
Parenthetical Documentation	548
Style Guides	548
Parenthetical Documentation: MLA and APA	549
Works Cited and Reference Lists	550
Citation Conventions: MLA	551
Citation Conventions: APA	553
Chapter Summary	Documentation 556

Student Research Report	557
Introduction	558
The Assignment	558
Research Report Project Plan Sheet	559
Progress Report	562
Final Project	565
Student Interview	579
Activities	581
Individual and Collaborative Activities	581
READING: "Copyright Issues on the Internet," by Dana R. Johnson	582

APPENDIX 1	The Search for Employment	586
	What Is an Employment Search?	587
	Self-Assessment and Career Goals	588
	Finding Job Leads	588
	Evaluating a Job Lead	591
	Applying for a Job	592
	Transmittal Letters	592
	Résumés	593
	Examples of Résumés	602
	Job Application Forms	602
	The Job Interview	607
	Preparing for an Interview	607
	Rehearsing for an Interview	607
	Participating in an Interview	609
	Following Up an Interview	612
	Activities	615

APPENDIX 2	The Search for Standard English Usage	617
	Standard English Writing Conventions	620
	Introduction	621
	Abbreviations	621
	Capitalization	624
	Numbers	626
	Numerals (Used as Figures)	627
	Numerals Spelled Out as Words	627
	Plurals of Nouns	629
	Punctuation	632
	Punctuation Marks Used Primarily at the End of a Sentence	632
	Internal Marks that Set Off and Separate	634
	Enclosing Marks Used In Pairs	643

Marks Used in the Punctuation of Individual Words and of Terms 646

Spelling 650

Suggestions for Improved Spelling 650
Using ie and ei Words 650
Spelling Changes When Affixes Are Added 651
Prefixes 651
Suffixes 652
Final Letters 655
-Ceed, -Sede, and -Cede Words 656

Symbols 656

Common Problems in Using Standard English 658

Introduction 659

Adjectives 659

Adverbs 660

Comma Splice 660

Conjunctions 661

Parallelism in Sentences 662

Placement of Modifiers 663

Dangling Modifiers 663
Dangling Elliptical Clauses 664
Misplaced Modifiers 664
Squinting Modifiers 664

Preposition at End of Sentence 665

Pronouns 666

Pronoun and Antecedent Agreement 666

Run-On, or Fused, Sentence 667

Sentence Fragments 668

Acceptable Sentence Fragments 668

Sexist Language 669

Occupational Titles 669

Shift in Sentence Focus 671

Shift in Person, Number, and Gender 671

Subject and Verb Agreement 672

Verbs 674

Active and Passive Voice 675

Words Often Confused and Misused 675

Credits 683

Index 687